

Modelling Respect and Equality (MoRE) Program

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FORM

It's time we talked about the culture of masculinity we want to cultivate as a society. Join us in creating positive change around what it means to be a man in the 21st century

Modelling Respect and Equality (MoRE) will build your skills and knowledge to create change in your community around issues of respect and equality, particularly with boys and men.

This is an empowering, experiential journey designed to support you to be an influencer for change your community.

DATES

The program will run from November 2020 to November 2021. The intensive training will be held online via Zoom for five weeks (10 November to the 8 December, Tuesday evenings from 7pm-9pm), followed by inclusion in a supportive Community of Practice for a year.

COST

MoRE in Hobsons Bay is funded by Hobsons Bay City Council and free of cost for you. You give your time, passion and creativity. We will cover the rest.

If you are a influential part of an organisation, sporting club, volunteer association, school or early years setting, we would love to hear from you. We are seeking diversity in the group, in age, genders, type of roles and location.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must live, work, study, or play in Hobsons Bay and it is recommended that you attend with a friend, colleague, fellow coach etc.
