The Friends of Altona Libraries (FOAL) was established in 1987. FOAL fundraising activity is centred around the bookroom, which is located behind Altona Library, we hold monthly booksales on the first Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of each month. Members are encouraged to assist with booksales.

Being a FOAL member:

- Aims to support, promote, and assist Altona Library and its value to the wider community.
- Sponsors and promotes 'Create by the Bay' in conjunction with Williamstown Library.
- Assist the libraries with resources and activities as requested.
- Raise funds for Altona, Altona Meadows, and Altona North Libraries.

Foal members hold a number of social activities through the year, and joining FOAL is a great way to make new friends.
