

BRACHYCHITON POPULNEUS X ACERIFOLIUS

Jerilderie Red

←
Botanical name

↑
Common name

DESCRIPTION

Typical height:

6-8 metres

Typical width:

3-5 metres

Growth rate:

Moderate to slow

Typical form:

Pyramidal to narrow-domed on stout trunk

CHARACTERISTICS

- Small evergreen tree.
- Dense canopy of simple, dull-green leaves.
- Clusters of dense, red bell-shaped flowers in spring/summer.

TOLERANCES

- Drought tolerant.

ORIGIN

Cultivar of hybrid of B. populneus & acerifolius

Above tree was planted in Jerilderie in 2000. Images courtesy of Humphris Nursery Pty. Ltd.

Medium

Native

Evergreen

Bird Attracting

Feature Flower

