

CORYMBIA FICIFOLIA

Red-Flowering Gum

Botanical name

Common name

DESCRIPTION

Typical height:
8-10 metres

Typical width:
10-12 metres

Growth rate:
Slow

Typical form:
Rounded, domed

CHARACTERISTICS

- Dense rounded canopy, rough brown bark.
- Deep green, leathery leaves with bronzy new growth.
- The flowers are brilliantly coloured red or pinkish or orange.

ORIGIN

Southern WA

TOLERANCES

- High drought tolerance.
- Coastal tolerances.

FACTS AND TRIVIA

The town of Drouin in Victoria is known as 'The Ficifolia Town' and has a 'Ficifolia festival' each year in February, when the trees are in flower.

Large distinctive fruits commonly known to children as 'Gum-nuts'.

Images: Treelogic P/L ©

Large

Native

Evergreen

Bird Attracting

Coastal

Feature Flower

